PROPERTY RIGHTS DECLARATION

We, John Wyrick, citizen of the United States of America and residing at East 4503 Red Roan Drive, Spokane, Washington 99217; Richard A. Young, citizen of the United States of America and residing at 216 Highland Street, Weston, Massachusetts 02493; Bing Ren, citizen of the People's Republic of China and residing at 12715 Camarena Road, San Diego, California 92130; Francois Robert, citizen of Canada and residing at 445 Marlborough Street, #1A, Boston, Massachusetts 02115; and Itamar Simon, citizen of Israel and residing at 93 Colborne Road, Brighton, Massachusetts 02135, declare that:

1. We made and conceived the invention described and claimed in patent application Serial Number 10/032,281 filed in the United States of America on December 21, 2001 entitled:

Genome-Wide Location and Function of DNA Binding Proteins

2. We made and conceived this invention while employed by Whitehead Institute for Biomedical Research. The invention is related to the work we are employed to perform and was made within the scope of our employment duties.
3. The invention was made during working hours and with the use of facilities, equipment, materials, funds, information and services of Whitehead Institute for Biomedical Research.
4. To the best of our knowledge and belief, the invention was not made or conceived in the course of, or in connection with, or under the terms of any contract, subcontract or arrangement entered into with or for the benefit of the United States Atomic Energy

Commission or its successors: Energy Research and Development Administration or the Department of Energy.

5. To the best of our knowledge and belief, the invention was not made (conceived or first actually reduced to practice) under nor is there any relationship of the invention to the performance of any work under any contract of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The undersigned inventors declare further that all statements made herein of their own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true and further that these statements are made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
